

Street Team Community Organizer

TITLE: Street Team Academy Member

Status: Part Time

Salary: Contact PUSH Field Organizer Christian Parra, christian@pushbuffalo.org

Through the lens of PUSH Buffalo's philosophy of working for a Just Transition in housing, joblessness, and oppression, the ideal candidate's primary duties will include:

1. Regular community outreach for PUSH's community work and campaigns. This outreach will include regular street canvassing, door to door knocking, phone calling, attending community events, attending meetings, data entry and in other ways as directed by PUSH Buffalo's Field Organizing Manager.
2. Using these modes of community outreach for PUSH Buffalo to build community relationships and bring new people into the organization.

The ideal candidate should bring a passion for social justice work and creating change. They should be able to speak English but possessing fluency in speaking other languages spoken in PUSH's primary organizing area including Karen, Burmese, Thai, Arabic, Somali, Swahili, Spanish is very helpful. The candidate should be comfortable with building relationships. That is, they should be outgoing, comfortable with some public speaking, comfortable with meeting new people, and able to lift at least 50 lbs. The candidate should have a basic proficiency with social media, and above average proficiency with using the personal computer and the MAC which includes the use of Microsoft Word. Candidates with experience in using VAN or Voter Action Network software will be considered.

Candidate should have at least a high school diploma or a GED. A bachelors or associates degree is not required but may be considered.
